Another odd thing is that there was no sign in the new piece that it is new. You got the impression in your opening view of the counte play that it had been running a long time. Everybody seemed to know his lines, his bushess and the fact that nerves were to be no part of his work. The girls—a long line of bequities, with firstnightines, and bearing one prinwith real voices—were at no time afflicted cipal, everybody went at the thing after the manner of a veteran.

But there were others. Mr. Charles E. Evans, who need to be famous with 'Old Hose,' liver in 'A Parifor Match,' is perhaps the real star of the piece—if it may be called a starring thing. Mr. Evans was never introduced to happy as it. Peoria, Sept. 9.—It was announced in railway circles here to-day that the purchase of the Peoria and Pekin Terminal by the Chicago and Alton had been completed. The rumor that the Alton would build a line from Washington, Ill., to Grove, where it joins its line from the south is also revived. The Terminal was engaged in securing the right of way south to Ramsay, Ill. It operates ten miles of track between Peoria and Pekin and owns and controls valuable terminals in this city.

The trial of Mrs. Josée K. Folsom, charged with fraud in giving spiritual scances and spirit writings, was closed yesterday at 2 o'clock. All the evidence was heard and the special committee of the National Spiritualities' Association, before whom the evidence was given, has taken the case under advisement and will render a verdiet publicly within ten days or two weeks.

Mrs. Folsom gave a private card-writing test before the committee and three women at her home. No. 2007 Dickson street, last allelt. The fest, whether a stucress of a failure, would not have any bearing on the case as Mrs. Folsom was on trial for fraud alleged to have been committed.

Mrs. Folsom will give the test if the conditions are favorable, and Mr. Biewart at the Folsom home last night. "Mrs. Folsom has had a very trying experience and conditions may not be favorable."

"The Duke of Duluth" an operatic farce, by George Breadhurst and E. Max S. Witt, will be produced Monday night at the Majestic. Just what an "operatic farce" is must develop in the course of the first performance. In it, Mr. Broadhurst makes his first lyrical essay, and Mr. Witt, known as a song writer hitherto, presents his biggest work. Nat M. Wills will create the title tole, a port which has been carefully adopted by Mr. Broadhurst to give scope to his qualities as a singing comedian.

The appearance of any new product of George Ade's imagination has come to be an event worthy of the kind of hearty welcome which is sure to be given at the Garden Theater Tuesday night to his latest comedy. "The Had Samaritas." The story accuss to be aimed in a whimsical way at the "Golden Ruie." so fir as it read into it some good solid "horse sense." It is has a moral, as each of Mr. Ade's fables in slang used to, the moral would read, doubtless, "Don't do unto others what won't do them any good, whether you'd like them to do it to you or not."

New York, Sept. 9.—It was learned to-day that a condition of practical starvation which has several times recently broken out among Panama Canal laborers was one of the grounds which caused Theodore P. Shonts, chairman of the Panama Canal Commission to accept the J. E. Markel bid for supplying food to Government employes at Panama, which has caused two unsuccessful bidders to protest to President Rogsevelt.

Chief Engineer John F. Stevens has been sending daily appeals to the Canal Commissioner's headquarters to send his men food.

It was stated to-day by authority that pour define them to do it to you or not."

Daniel Probman has engaged the following company for Augustus Thomas new play. "The Embassy Ball," in which Laurence D'Orsoy is to be the star. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walcott. Maude Knowlton. Marlon Barney. Mary Tunison. Stanley Bark, W. E. Hitcheoek, Henry Heaton. E. W. Morrison. E. Carrington and Edger Martiregor. The play will be produced out of town next month, and come into New York later. This is the play the writing of which brought Mr. Thomas in contact with the late John Hay, an account of which meeting was so dramatically told by Mr. Thomas in the columns of The Republic several days after Mr. Hay's death.

ing condition, due to the fact that the demand for food has raised the prices of all commodities to abnormal figures in Panamas.

The diarra-day men, with eggs at least three days at a time without any foot at the centre of the officers, beging for food, and daily cables to Washington for food amplies in the samps.

They have gathered around the quapters of the officers, beging for food, and daily cables to Washington for food amplies have been the result.

In this emergency one of the reasons for accepting the Markel bid, it is learned, was the fact that he has an organized force ready to put into Panama at once.
